

Billingswood MANOR

"I decided to stay at Billingswood manor on a trial basis. The staff were very friendly, welcoming and helpful; they come to clean my room and provide all my meals." since, I have moved in permanently permanent resident - Nina

"I like everything about it! The meals are tasty and the laundry is always done with care. Absolutely no complaints; I am well taken care of." - Alma

"I have been here about seven years, and the service here is very good. The staff are helpful when my laundry is done they put it away for me. Overall my life here is comfortable." - Pamela

"I have been living at the Manor since 2006 after having been at the hospital; I came here and enjoyed it with no intentions of leaving. I enjoy the exercise classes and when I have a problem it is fixed immediately." - Thora

"I came here because I couldn't do the stairs at home with my walker. I had a friend that lived here before and we would come to visit her. I was impressed and decided to give it a try myself. The meals are mostly made up of things I would eat at home so I have no complaints, I am very happy." - Helen
